

Grace, Gratitude & Generosity

Some people need to write. They are driven with an urge as strong as hunger or thirst to put words to paper. Jane McBride is such a writer. She is a master of the rhythm and flow of words, hearing the syncopation of her sentences in her mind as she writes. Hers is a writer's soul. This work reveals bits of that soul as she explores, very publicly, her personal journey from a childhood of challenging circumstances to an adulthood of joy and wonder, filled with the grace, gratitude and generosity she seeks – and offers to others. — Sheila Friedeck, Associate Managing Editor, Beaumont Enterprise
